Death at Waldo.

Information has been received in this city of the death at Waldo of Mrs. J. O. Sessions, which sad event occurred at that place Friday night from typhoid fever. Deceased had been suffering with the dread disease for several weeks, but it was thought she would recover until a relapse came from the effects of a small piece of watermelon eaten by the patient.

Mrs. Sessions had resided at Waldo for a number of years and was a widow, owing to the death of her husband several years ago. She leaves five daughters and one son to mourn her loss, three of the former being quite small.

The bereaved children have the sympathy of many friends in their sad affliction.
